Congress-NCP, Shiv Sena finalise draft CMP, final call early next week

common minimum programme (CMP) was finalised by Shiv Sena, NCP and Congress on Thursday in the first concrete step towards government formation. It will now be shared with the chiefs of the three parties, who will confer over the weekend and the final blueprint is expected by November 19.

With the draft CMP wrapped up, attention has turned to power sharing, and a broad consensus seems to be emerging on Sena getting 16 cabinet members, NCP 14 and Congress 12. The Speaker is likely to be from Congress, and will get a deputy from Sena, while the legislative council chairman's post will go to NCP, with the deputy's chair, again, for Sena.

The top posts seem to be far from decided. A senior Congress leader said: "Shiv Sena has staked claim for the CM's post. It is not yet clear if it will be for five years or it will be by rotation for two and half years, or it should be for an equal period among Congress, Shiv Sena and NCP." Stressing that all posts and cabinet berths will be decided by consensus, the leader added that a decision on deputy CM will be taken after deliberations among senior leaders of all three parties.

As efforts for government formation seemed to pick up momentum in Mumbai, a PIL was filed in the Supreme Court, alleging that the change in Sena's stand, which had fought the polls with BJP, was "nothing but betrayal of people's trust reposed in the NDA". It may be determined to provide a stable, non-BJP government as people of Maharashtra do not want a mid-term poll," said Congress' Vijay Wadettiwar.

Talking about the draft CMP,

Chavan told TOI: "We took once the final document is and drafted the CMP. It is not an election manifesto, but an action plan for providing clean Chavan, Malik and Shinde said the draft will be submitted to Sonia Gandhi, Sharad Pawar listed for hearing in the next and Uddhav Thackeray in a day few days. In the tri-party camp, or two. The three are expected the mood was upbeat. "We are to jointly deliberate on the contents and finalise the document by Sunday. Once approved, Uddhav may meet Pawar on Sunday itself, and subsequently, they are likely to meet Sonia in New Delhi on payment obligations to the government. The company may end up being the biggest non-performing asset (NPA) for lenders because of the lack of securities, guarantees or fresh equity from promoters.

Banks currently have an exposure of close to Rs 1,00,000 crore to Vodafone in fund and non-fund based agreements. A large part of this is in the form of bank guarantees as capital expenditure was limited and most of the expenses were on account of payments to government.

Vodafone Idea said that it has accounted for the estimated liability of Rs 27,610 crore in in 2015 that was more in favour licence fees and Rs 16,540 crore of telecom companies. By the related to spectrum usage charges up to September 30, 2019, including interest, penalty and interest on penalty of Rs 33,010 crore. This has to be paid in 90 days from the court order. A default would cause the government to invoke Vodafone Idea's bank guarantee issued by

Lenders fear Voda's Rs 1L cr turning into NPA

Once the guarantee is invoked, the non-fund exposure of lenders would be converted into a loan. As the company is not in any position to repay the debt, it would have to be classified as an NPA. Given that this has the potential to become one of the biggest NPAs in banking, stocks of lenders with an exposure to Vodafone could open lower.

first held a meeting with Congress leader Balasaheb Thorat and NCP's Jayant Patil on the CMP. It was followed by a joint meeting of senior Congress and NCP leaders, and later in the evening, Congress, NCP and Sena leaders met to finalise the draft CMP at the office of Chhagan Bhujbal's MET education trust. Congress leaders Chavan, Sushilkumar Shinde, Manikrao Thakre and Wadettiwar, NCP's Jayant Patil, Nawab Malik and Bhujbal, and Sena's Eknath Shinde and Subhash Desai were present.

former Congress CM Prithvirai November 19. "We feel that for lenders on lack of securities

MUMBAI: Lenders said they clear that they are not going to will have no recourse should infuse fresh equity. There is no Vodafone Idea default on its corporate quarantee or crossholding of shares by promoters that will put pressure on them to avoid a default and they have indicated that they will take the insolvency route," said a banker.

Combined Q2 loss of Rs 74,000 crore for Vodafone, Airtel Lenders said the grim outlook has been conveyed to the government, which has set up a committee of secretaries that will take stock of the financial stress in the telecom sector and suggest steps to provide relief to telcos. Banks said that lenders had not insisted on a provision earlier as TDSAT had issued an order time the case progressed in the Supreme Court, telcos did not have the cash flows to make provisions for the contingent liability. Lenders do not see a way out of this as the payment has been called for on the basis of the Supreme Court order. "One way out would be if the interest component was waived and the payment is allowed to be amortised over a period of time. However, this would require a legal opinion as the SC order was clear on what the companies should pay," said a banker. Lenders said they will have no recourse should Vodafone Idea default on its payment obligations to the government. The company may end up being the biggest nonperforming asset (NPA) for lenders because of the lack of securities, quarantees or fresh equity from promoters.

Though Maharashtra is under President's rule, the situation is quite different from the time election results were announced three weeks ago when Sena snubbed BJP. Following the intervention of Sena MP Sanjay Raut, Uddhav had knocked on Pawar's doors. After several rounds of discussion, Pawar took the lead on government formation with a brand new political construct by speaking to Sonia. Her trusted aide Ahmed Patel was deputed for

"Where were the advocates of human rights when my rights were taken away?" Vashisht asked the panelists who were present at the hearing.

"Where were they on the night of January 19, 1990, when there were voices blaring from all mosques in Kashmir that they wanted Kashmir with Hindu women but without Hindu men?"

"Where was the saviour of humanity when my feeble old grandfather stood with kitchen knives and an old rusted axe ready to kill my mother and I in order to save us from the much worse fate that awaited us?" she questioned further.

She then said, "My people were given three choices by the terrorists: flee, convert or die on the same fateful night. Around 400,000 Kashmiri Hindus fled right after the night of horror.

"They survived. Those who didn't were killed. Today, 30 vears later. I am still not welcome in my home in Kashmir. I am not allowed to follow my faith there. My house in Kashmir is illegally occupied as most others in my communities. And those which were not occupied have been burnt down or ransacked." she told the hearing.
